

You Are Invited...

to attend the 31st Annual Ohio Project WILD
Facilitator Training at Mohican State Park
Lodge on March 28-29, 2012!

Project WILD, Aquatic Project WILD and Growing Up WILD are international programs that provide interdisciplinary conservation and environmental education materials focusing on wildlife. They are designed for Pre-K thru 12 classrooms, youth groups, nature centers and more.

As a volunteer facilitator, you will become one of a network of over 350 formal and non-formal education professionals across the state that provide training to other educators in Project WILD materials and programs. You will also be part of one of the best environmental education networks in the country!

Dates: March 28-29, 2012

Location: Mohican State Park Lodge and Conference Center. For more information go to: www.mohicanstateparklodge.com

Times: Registration begins at 9:30 am on Wednesday. Workshop ends at 3:00 pm on Thursday.

Cost: $90—covers food, lodging, materials and take-home items.

Sorry, we cannot accommodate part-time participants.
